Your astrological horoscope (natal chart) at birth is an important key to your personality and character, but your natal chart is not the last word about you. As time moves on after the moment of your birth, the Sun, Moon, and planets continue to circle through the heavens forming ever-changing kaleidoscopic patterns in relation to your own birth chart, bringing out or obscuring this or that part of you.

It can be useful to know how these ongoing planetary patterns relate to your life, and that is what this report is about. Here we calculate the primary astrological changes in your chart and interpret them so that you can see at a glance what is happening at any given time. Your events are arranged and interpreted chronologically, by well-known astrologer Michael Erlewine, and each event includes date and time, keywords, astrological indicator, and an astro-tarot card. We hope you enjoy your forecast.

Report: Jan 01, 2011 to Mar 31, 2011
Place: Palo Alto, CA
In the tradition of astrology the planets have always been interpreted separately from the Sun and the Moon, which are called “The Lights,” and for good reason. They literally light up our life and their combined interaction describes the essence of what is happening to us at any given time. Although called “The Moon Report,” any mention of the Moon automatically involves the Sun, and of course, our Earth. These three, the Sun, Moon, and Earth, in their endless interaction are perhaps the single most important factor to observe in astrology.

The ever-changing relationship in the sky between the Sun and the Moon is perhaps most obvious at the Full Moon, but as we know, it is going on all the time. This report tracks the Sun-Moon relationship as it relates to your particular natal horoscope and birth chart, detailing all of the major events that take place in the current month for a specific life area and planet.

The Moon has always represented the ‘mother’, meaning anything that nurtures or cares for us, our support system, however that is made up. It also indicates our emotional makeup, how we feel about things, and the nostalgia of the past - where we came from.

On the other hand, the Sun represents the ‘father’ principle and the future, where we are heading toward and, to some degree, the means we have to get there. The Sun burns brightly, while the Moon is cool and comforting. The two together mark the endless play between the past and the future, and we here on Earth, are caught right in the middle, that is: the present.
Your Uranus Forecast

The planet Uranus charts the path of innovation and discovery in our lives, not what stabilizes and binds us (Saturn), but what liberates and frees us, where we can look for a break-out experience and some light at the end of the tunnel. This planet shows how we can be different and bring some variety and change into our lives, and this forecast helps to map out opportunities for independence and improvement.

This forecast is about how the planet Uranus figures in your natal chart and what it portends for the immediate future. The planet Uranus indicates change and novel ways it might come about, opportunities for a new view of things, a way out of the box. We hope you enjoy it.
Uranus in your Natal Chart

Before we present your Uranus forecast for the coming months, let's review how the planet Uranus is configured in your natal or birth chart. What follows is an interpretation of Uranus at your birth to the Sun, Moon, and other planets. It should help to give you a general idea of how you related to matters of innovation and independence. Here goes:

- Uranus Semisextile Moon (Waning)

  Core Insight
  You like to boil it all down, extracting what are essential insights, from what is inconsequential. This relates to looking into the nature of the mind, whether that be purely psychological on your part, or relating to the public mind. Seed essence of ideas.

- Uranus Quincunx Sun (Waxing)

  Details of Change
  You like to explore things deep down the line, and in innovative ways, matters involving extension, extending to the very limit of resources, connecting everything, right down to the finest wire. Technology and computers. Inventions.

- Uranus Sesquiquadrate Mercury (Waxing)

  Obstacles to Insight
  You will have energy-filled and creative times in your life, where new thoughts, insights, inventions flood out and are available to put to work, to build into whatever you are working on. These are times to persevere, not ones to slack off on - windows of opportunity. Best to work with what you have on hand, than to imagine that pushing forward will bring you more.

- Uranus Quincunx Venus (Waxing)

  Chanter & Verse
  You will have times where you may be very inventive, loving to get into all the little differences, to change or alter things. And all of this relates to completing or finishing up some project already in progress.
Uranus Semisextile Mars (Waning)

Bottom Line
In your life, ambitions to be independent or different are reduced to their essential elements, and carried out.

Uranus Semisextile Jupiter (Waxing)

Map on the Route
When it comes to questions of career and success, your search for new plans and ideas, and/or to discover the path to insights and new solutions are crafted into innovative plans for success.

Uranus Semisextile Saturn (Waning)

Pivotal
You have a skill for the encapsulation of key ideas and practical insight into their seed essence.

Uranus Semisextile Neptune (Waning)

The Lotus
You are able to boil the New Age spirituality and inspiration down to an extract, the essence of it all.

Uranus Semisquare Pluto (Waxing)

Obstacles
Your need for deep insights, flashes of inspiration, and plans in these areas can meet with resistance and/or delays. When this occurs, patience and steady forward progress is indicated.
Your Uranus Forecast

Now that we have reviewed how the planet Uranus is configured at your birth, let's get to the heart of this report, a forecast as to how the planet Uranus (matters of independence and innovation) will play out in the coming months. These are the actual transits that will occur between the Sun, Moon, and other planets in relations to the planet Uranus, laid out in an easy-to-read calendar-like format.

Each event will be described by date, day of the week, and include an interpretation written by astrologer Michael Erlewine about how that event might appear in your life. This includes a brief keyword description, when you can expect this event to be exact, the astrological jargon professional astrologers can read, and even a little tarot-like card image to jump-start your imagination.

By reading through the activity of the planet Uranus forecast in the coming months, you basically have a roadmap of how this planet will manifest its nature and play out in your life. We hope you enjoy your forecast.
Public Interest
Moon Square Uranus (Wan) Transit to Transit
A shift or turning point here, from a more personal to a less personal perspective, as you take on the role of psychoanalyst, able to see and have insights into your own feelings. It is easier now to distance yourself and to let go of what used to be felt much more personally. This is a more mature viewpoint.

Critical Insight
Moon Sextile Uranus (Wan) Transit to Transit
You now have insight into insights, and a better view of what moves you and/or the public mind, in general. Observations of this kind that allow separating the wheat from the chaff, culling what has meaning from what is just noise. You have greater emotional insight, but now with some distance.

Mind Block
Moon Semisquare Uranus (Wan) Transit to Transit
Here we are looking at what remains, what you have culled from your insight into your own emotional nature, and that of all that you would call your support structure. You should be down to the nitty-gritty on this one, and out of the way of the wind. It not, then time to give up more ground yet, and be content with even less.

Core Insight
Moon Semisextile Uranus (Wan) Transit to Transit
This is the point of boiling it all down and extracting what are essential insights, from what is inconsequential, and relates to looking into the nature of the mind, whether that is purely psychological on your part, or relating to the public mind – the seed essence of ideas.

Innovative Ideas
Moon Conjunct Uranus (Wax) Transit to Transit
Flashes of new insight, into the emotions, about your own mind or the mind of the public, and the past. Perhaps more like feelings, these flashes light up the inner sky, exposing whatever is there, at least for a moment. They stick with you.
Innovative Plans

Various insights into your own psychology, the mind, and whatever is close to you, family, your entire support network, collect and turn into ideas and plans that can be carried out and tested in the real world.

Idea Block

Insights into your feelings and emotions, giving way to foresight and plans as to how they may be put to work, meet up with should-have-been-expected roadblocks, perhaps from the past, that must be dealt with. Patience is the key, and it is important that you do move forward. This is not a time to hesitate or take "no" for an answer.

Innovative Acceptance

Handling your inter emotions with skill and insight is in order. The energy for progress in this kind of introspection is at hand, but resistance from the past, old habits, etc. require patience and forbearance on your part, if you want actually accomplish something lasting. Psychoanalytical thoughts or some kind of home-brew psychology may be in order.

Innovative Steps

Here is a what is perhaps a minor triumph, something that should be visible, as you harness various insights into your feelings and past, producing what should be some actual sign of progress for you and others to see.

Crucial Freedoms

A view from afar, gives you real insights into your own (or other’s) excess, in particular as to matters of self-sufficiency and personal independence, and you can see just what should be cut out and removed, and you have the energy to effect these changes. Sudden criticism, and perhaps an original approach to all of this.

Embody Insights

A great (and energetic) time to gain insights into your deeper emotions, and perhaps even see more into your past history, coming up with clear thoughts and ideas that you can embody or build into your current life plans. Now is the time to make the effort to build a solid framework, to push forward.
Insight Block
Insights into your own psychology, and personal emotional environment can run into walls, and are easily avoided by a simple attitude adjustment: don’t push what you have going, but instead leave off at adding more, and work to complete what is already on the menu.

Organize Details
Use insight into your own history to make the necessary connections to complete a more detailed understanding of your own thoughts and feelings or the public mood. Energetically, you are on a roll, and should be able to actually take advantage of whatever forces rise to block your efforts. Finish things up.

Feeling Innovative
At worst, this could be a time of emotional tension and even outbreaks, whether public or private. With some luck, you could have a spontaneous experience of insight into your mind, its inner workings, and into your past/environment, in general. Not is not the time for new projects. Get the full experience of this moment first.

Innovative Teaching
Getting a handle on and becoming more aware of your emotional state, which could be tense or somewhat high-strung just now, is indicated. But it could also involve some real flashes of insight into your mind and emotions. You are getting the idea.

Innovative Response
Grasp the awareness of what you are feeling, perhaps an insight into your own personal support structure, and have patience with obstacles that will arise to frustrate you. These are just nudges in a new direction, that of being more receptive.

Caring For
By now, you should have some sort of handle on what you have been feeling of late as relates to your support environment, and this may have been somewhat emotionally tense. Make notes and take steps to use what you can from the insights you have had. Save the best; forget the rest.

Public Interest
A shift or turning point here, from a more personal to a less personal perspective, as you take on the role of psychoanalyst, able to see and have insights into your own feelings. Key Changes
Self-sufficiency, even one pared down to essentials, may not be enough to remove certain obstacles, ones that are caused by our not heeding signs to give in to life even more than we have, and to adjust our sails to that more of life passes through us, as opposed to piling up against us. This is an endgame strategy.
