The Prenatal New Moon

The New Moon before your birth marks the beginning of the lunation cycle you were born in. The position of the moon at that time remains a sensitive point for you throughout life, and any natal planets aspecting that point have a stronger significance.

Moon's Symbol:

Two little love-birds are sitting on a fence singing to each other and advertising their happiness to the world. INFORMATION

15° Aquarius

Moon's Aspects to Your Chart

You enjoy solitude and have a great deal of inner strength that commands the respect of others. You live simply and without glamour. You are somewhat aloof, have a serious disposition, and treasure wisdom.

Moon Sextile Saturn

You are very excitable and you express your rapidly changing feelings spontaneously and openly. Your unpredictable and uncontrollable feelings give you a child-like disposition in many ways. Domestic life tends to be unstable.

Moon Square Uranus

Your mind is inclined to find subjects related to people's personal lives and heritage more interesting than technical areas or abstract subjects. Your interests include psychology, anthropology, literature, and perhaps history.

Moon Conjunct Mercury

You succeed in careers that involve you with the public or large groups of people. You gain a great sense of personal fulfillment from serving the public or working in a helping profession. You are also family-oriented, so a family-run business would suit you.

Moon Trine Midheaven

You have strong imaginative and intuitive abilities that incline you toward poetry, art, music, and religion. You empathize with all people and can identify with different ethnic groups. You quickly sense what other people feel and want.
