Technical Details of how the planetary patterns are determined: Each interpretation is based on a 3-planet pattern. The 3 planets are forming a midpoint structure where a planet forms one of the following aspects to the midpoint of 2 other planets: conjunct or opposition with 2 degree orb, square with 1 1/2 degree orb, semisquare or sesquiquadrate with a 1 degree orb, or 1/16, 3/16, 5/16, or 7/16 with a 30 minute orb. Also, the 3 planets are aspected to each other in the same harmonic. The harmonics analyzed are 1 through 64 and any doubling of these numbers, such as 120 which is a double of 60, up to 180. The total number of harmonics analyzed is 108. In the harmonic chart all 3 aspects are within a 12 degree orb. Also, any midpoint structure involving a conjunction or opposition aspect within a 1 1/2 degree orb, even if a harmonic triangle is not involved, is interpreted.
